Photograph taken by interior designer to show the artist the colours that she wanted her artwork painted in...

The interior designer chose this painting for our artist to base her artwork on. She liked the style of this painting but wanted the colours as shown in the photograph above.

This is our resulting painting. If you are looking for artwork to complement your designs and colour scheme, simply provide us with a colour reference and we'll make sure the artwork and your colour scheme complement one another superbly just like the triptych above does
